PLACES

Bolgheri

First mentioned in 1075, on a papal bull by Pope Gregory VII, its name derives from Bulgari (Italian for "Bulgarians"), due to the presence of a military camp of Bulgarian, allies of the Lombards.

Bolgheri, with its old historical center, the typical houses of stone and bricks, rich food and wine shops, small restaurants and taverns, is really an enchanting village.

The village itself is as precious as it is small. It is perfect for a short visit, but I strongly recommend you take your time to fully enjoy its atmosphere.

I find Bolgheri is an ideal spot for a pleasant walk browsing through its food and local specialties shops, it's nice alleys, enjoying a

Montecatini val di Cecina

Local agriculture and the old copper mine provided Montecatini Val di Cecina with a degree of prosperity in the early Middle Ages. Like many Tuscan hilltop towns, its medieval aspect has been preserved precisely because lack of economic development. Today, Montecatini Val di Cecina is enjoying a small economic revival through tourism though on a modest scale. Download audioguide

Casale marittimo

PLACES

This medieval village (among the most beautiful in Italy and awarded an Orange Flag by the Touring Club Italiano) was founded around the year 1000 and signs of its evolution have left their mark on the walls of the historic centre, whose stone and terracotta buildings have remained almost intact. Lovers of architecture will enjoy identifying the ruins of the ancient castle, now engulfed by the urban fabric, as well as the semicircle ring structure of the previous town walls. Among its buildings worthy of mention are the Palazzo Rocca, the Church of Sant'Andrea (built on the ruins of an ancient parish church), and the 18th-century Santa Maria delle Grazie. Not far from the village, recent archaeological excavations have brought to light the ruins of an Etruscan village from the 7th century BC. They also unearthed the necropolis of Casa Nocera, an important burial complex of the Etruscan Warrior Princes, in which the highly interesting Warrior Princes of Casale Marittimo were rediscovered, two statues which, on all accounts, are the most ancient in the history of time: one day. Download

Volterra has an unmistakable Medieval character, where the atmosphere of an ancient village can still be felt and whose authenticity is protected by the relative isolation that has limited the development of the city center in the industrial era, safeguarding the city from urban speculation. Treasure trove of artistic heritage, which can be admired as you walk through the streets.

MUSEO ETRUSCO GUARNACCI

Collection items span from the prehistoric, archaic and Classical age to the Hellenistic period (4th century-1st century BC), an age in which Volterra grew considerably. One of the most significant monuments in the collection is the Urn of the Bride and Groom (Urna degli Sposi) and the Shadow of the Evening (Ombra della sera): his fame is due to the elongated shape that resembles a human shadow projected in the sunset. ECOMUSEUM OF ALABASTER

The museum is located in the 13th-century Minucci Towers, which are near Piazza dei Priori, via Sarti. There are many works of art in the exhibition space, as well as works by highly contemporary artisans. Inside there is also, perfectly rebuilt, a Craft shop with the tools of current use..

The ticket (3,50€) give access also to the Pinacoteca.

centuries BCE, it has survived to today in all its majesty. The uniqueness of the structure is in the use of stone, of which there are three different colours based on the type of rock used: yellow for the supporting structure, grey for the arch and darker hues for the three mysterious heads.

PIAZZA DEI PRIORI

Palazzo dei Priori (city hall) - Palazzo Pretorio (civic functions) - Piazza del Battistero (religious center). This closeness between the civic and religious centres was the symbol of the power of Volterra over the surrounding territory. The piazza is the site of numerous cultural activities and, in the summer period, there is a weekly market.

PALAZZO VITI

The palazzo was bought by Giuseppe Viti in 1850, who had it restored and now its interiors contain nineteenth-century decorations and furnishings, a large collection of alabasters, old oriental objects that belonged to Viti, an eclectic traveller and alabaster dealer. <http://www.palazzoviti.it>

The Rocca Sillana stands on a hill in the Pomarance municipality, more than 500 metres above sea level. It's an old fortress situated in a strategic location that dominates all of the surrounding area.

Here, the views range across the entire Valdicecina, enabling any seafaring enemies to be glimpsed in advance. The typical military architecture offers proof of the building's function as a defensive structure and not as a castle for lords, bearing weapons such as the crossbow and the most powerful of cannons. The remains of a second curtain wall in the woods below also bear witness to the stronghold's use. Download audioguide

Terre del Marchesato stands, an artisan company where tradition and love for the land bring the Fuselli family to produce quality wines! A story that began in 1954 in Bolgheri, when Emilio Fuselli, a farmer from the Marches who had emigrated to Tuscany, bought a piece of land from the Marquis "Incisa della Rocchetta". He began by planting the first vineyards, with a small production of wine for consumption in the family. After three generations, the nephew Maurizio Fuselli, with a ten-year experience developed at "Antinori", takes the reins of the company by planting only vineyards. To date, the Fuselli family takes care of the 10 hectares of vineyards, completely hand-worked, following the winemaking process in person, bringing all the passion and tradition from the Earth to the Bottle. The first bottle of wine produced was "Emilio Primo 2003" dedicated to his grandfather Emilio who inspired and taught such a humble and peasant art in Maurizio

Tenuta San Guido is named after the Saint Guido della Gherardesca who lived during the XI century. It is located on the Tyrrhenian coast, between Leghorn and Grosseto, in Maremma an area made famous by Italian Nobel prize winner Giosuè Carducci, and it stretches for 13 km from the sea to the hills.

Three are its defining characteristics: the Sassicaia wine, the Razza Dormello-Oligiata thoroughbred studfarm and the Bird Sanctuary Padule di Bolgheri. They divide the estate between the Padule on the coast, the horse's training grounds on the plain, and the vineyards planted up to 350 meters on the hills. The latter have been given their own DOC, the DOC Bolgheri Sassicaia, the first, and so far only case in Italy of a DOC contained in one estate.

The wedding of Mario Incisa della Rocchetta and Clarice della Gherardesca on October 18th 1930 started it all.

They shared a love for thoroughbred horses that made them form a partnership with horse breeder and trainer Federico Tesio. Mario Incisa's love of good wine made him plant Cabernet vines in 1942 for what was to become Sassicaia.

GINORI LISCI

The Ginori Lisci family began developing their winery in 1999. After careful assessment of the soil and the climate, seventeen hectares of specialized vineyards were planted with Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Sangiovese, Syrah, Viognier and Vermentino vines.

Registered with the Montescudaio DOC, these vineyards are located on the lower portions of the hill, on three entirely homogeneous plots. The vineyards have been designed to ensure that all management activities, in tune with the natural growth of the plants, can be performed so as to guarantee the production of high quality wines.

The modern organic winery Colline di Sopra was founded in the year 2006 and taken over by the Swiss agronomist ETH Ulrich Ziegler in the year 2015. The winery lies in the Montescudaio DOC area and consists of 14 ha situated in an excellent "Terroir". The 5 ha of productive vineyard are planted with typical "Costa Toscana" varieties, while the new vineyard of 5 ha is dedicated to white grape varieties. The conduction of the fields is organically certified by ICEA. The winery is situated a 20 km from the sea and 15 km from Bolgheri, in the sunny and ventilated Cecina river valley.

Our goal is to offer you an interesting wine of highest quality. A sustainable and energy efficient production method is important to us. We collect rainwater, produce alternative energy and we have a power-optimized production process.
